LOOK OUT TEACHERS.

Dr. Dixon Will Prosecute All Violators of Vaccination Law.

Harrisburg, Feb. 24.—State Health Commissioner Samuel G. Dixon, acting for the state department of health, will at once prosecute a number of teachers in different parts of the state who have absolutely refused to comply with the vaccination law and who in defiance of this law are admitting unvaccinated children to their schools.

The attorneys for the department have all their evidence in hand for a number of these cases. Health Commissioner Dixon has also arranged to secure evidence in all other cases where the law has been violated. In addition to teachers, proceedings are to be taken against school directors and others who have conspired to have the law defied.

The commissioner stated that every effort has been made to point out to the teachers their duty under the law. He has carried on a vigorous campaign of education.

All old-time cough syrups bind the bowels. This is wrong. A new idea was advanced two years ago in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy acts on the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs and loosens the bowels at the same time. It expels all cold from the system. It clears the throat, strengthens the mucous membranes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by Stouteagle Bros.

EGGS TAKE A DROP.

Mild Winter Has Knocked the Bottom Out of Prices.

Eggs are cheaper in McConnellsburg now, 12 cents per dozen, than they have been at this season of the year for a number of years.

The reason for the low price is, of course, the warm weather. It is well known that during cold weather hens do not lay as frequently as in the warmer months; indeed, a great many hens do not lay at all in winter. To meet the demand for eggs during these unproductive periods, millions are packed in cold storage, to be sold at high prices in the winter. When a very mild winter occurs, such as the present one, the hens are much more productive, and the cold storage stock is a drag on the market and must be sold at any price. Hence the low prices of storage eggs, which in turn have brought down the prices of fresh eggs.

The storage men are losing money on account of this condition of affairs, and those who deal in fresh eggs are not making much. When the storage companies bought their eggs last summer and fall they were higher than they are now.

Wire Fence! Wire Fence! Much Cheaper Than

Any Style of Wood Fence

Let us figure together. A stick of timber that will square 6 inches and is 104 feet in length, will make 494 feet of lumber, which at $1.50 a hundred, is worth 75 cents. Now, I can sell you a good wire fence for 32c a rod, which is less than half the cost of a wood fence.

The style I sell at 32c is a "bunkum" fence. A witness in court was once asked what kind of fence he had, when he made the reply, "I have a 'bunkum' fence." "What kind of fence is that, thundered the court." "A 'bunkum' fence," answered the witness, "is a fence that is horse-high, bull-strong, and pig-tight." That is just the kind of fence I sell. The price ranges from 25c. to 60c. a rod depending on the style and height.

DEERING HARVESTING MACHINERY

—the best on earth. I have just bought my twine and will guarantee the price now. Machine Oil from 18c. to 40c. a gallon. Collars, collar pads, trace chains, halter chains, &c., at very close prices. I have the best assortment of axes to be found anywhere in town. Axe handles, pick handles, sledge handles, Simon cross-cut saws, Dixon cross-cut saws, hand-saws, a complete line of strap and heavy hand-rod hinges. Plumber's supplies—such as pipe, fittings, spigots, &c. I have on hand all the time a stock of Laidig's patent hand-rod hinges and irons—the best hanger on the market—can't get off the track. Proved cable chain from 1 to 1 on hand all the time, price ranging from 4c to 7 cents a pound.
